Note:

- Arson is a hybrid crime, impacting property, safety, and public order. I did not include it above but can do so if desired.
- Let's discuss fraud in commercial transactions (T13 Ch 49). Are commercial transaction still done this way? Part of UCC?

APPENDIX

- In 2010, South Carolina revised its dollar-value cutoffs to the following. No increase in property crime was observed.
 - o Value < $2,000 : 30 day maximum penalty
 - o Value $2,000 $10,000: 5 year maximum penalty
 - O Value > $10,000: 10 year maximum penalty

• What follows is a 50-state survey of felony cutoffs assembled by the Pew Charitable Trusts in 2017. Please note that for purposes of the survey, "felony" means more than one year in prison. Thus, in summary, the chart represents in Vermont crime classification-speak, the dividing line between Class A and Class B misdemeanors.
